ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

2009 - 7481

Detective Ken Taylor D1177

INVESTIGATIVE DETAILS:

On August 25, 2009, I made contact with Marvin (M.P.) Martin, at his residence located at 204 Sunglow Ave. I advised Mr. Martin I had received information that he was possibly the victim of a theft from his residence.

Mr. Martin told his pistol had been stolen, but he had gotten back. I asked Mr. Martin to explain the circumstances of the theft.

Mr. Martin advised me Hank Sr. and Lisa Croslin used to live next door to him, and he had remained friendly with the family even after they had moved away. Mr. Martin was unable to tell me the exact day the theft occurred but he believed it was possibly last Wednesday or Thursday (08-19-09 or 08-20-09), Lisa Croslin and Hank Croslin Jr. had come over to his residence to use his telephone, which they did often, due to the fact there telephone at there residence had been turned off.

Mr. Martin advised me he noticed his firearm, a Colt Army Special .38 caliber revolver missing from his bedroom, either on Friday or Saturday he was unsure. Mr. Martin told me he called Timmy Croslin residence, the son of Lisa Croslin. I asked Mr. Martin where Timmy Croslin lived. Mr. Croslin told me he was not sure, he only knew it was somewhere in New Jersey. I looked through Mr. Martin's caller identification phone and located a number he believed belonged to Timmy Croslin (774) 268-9166, but he was unsure. Mr. Martin told me he spoke with Timmy's wife; he was unable to remember her name. Mr. Martin stated he told her "I know either Lisa or Hank stole my gun and I want it back." I asked Mr. Martin why he was so sure one of them had stolen the firearm. Mr. Martin told me they had been the only ones inside his residence, and he has not been anywhere since they had been at his residence.

I asked Mr. Martin how he got the firearm back. Mr. Martin told me about two hours after he made the call, to Timmy Croslin's wife, Lisa and Hank Croslin Sr. arrived at his house and returned the firearm to him. I asked Mr. Martin who he thought had stolen his firearm, Lisa or Hank Jr.. Mr. Croslin said that Lisa told him that Hank Jr. Had stolen the firearm, but he was not sure which one of them had stolen the firearm.

In view of the above listed information, this investigation is deemed cleared pending. Further reports will be rendered on a timely basis, if and when deemed warranted.

On September 11, 2009, I met with Mr. Martin at his residence located at 204 Sunglow Road, San Mateo, Florida.

Mr. Martin advised me he wanted to pursue criminal charges against Thomas Hank Croslin for the theft of his firearm. Mr. Martin then signed a charging affidavit. Mr. Martin then recounted the morning the firearm was stolen. I conducted a digitally recorded interview.

Mr. Martin advised me on the morning that Lisa and Hank Croslin Jr., came to his house, Hank Jr. was the only one that went into his bedroom where the firearm was being kept. Mr. Martin went on to say that when he discovered the firearm missing the following day; he called Chelsea Croslin, daughter in-law of Lisa Croslin. Mr. Martin told me that he knew either Lisa or Hank Jr. had stolen the firearm and he wanted it back or he was going to call law enforcement.

Mr. Martin told me no more than three hours later, Lisa and Hank Croslin Sr. arrived at his residence and returned the firearm. I asked Mr. Martin if they said how they had become in possession of the firearm. Mr.

Martin told me Lisa told him that Hank Jr. had stolen the firearm and hidden it outside in the shed behind his residence (116 Tyler Street.) I then collected the firearm and will place it into evidence.

I then went to 116 Tyler Street, in an attempt to make contact with Lisa Croslin. I was advised that she was not at home. I left my business card, with my cellular telephone number and requested that she contact me when she returned home.

On September 14, 2009, I went to 116 Tyler Street, in an attempt to make contact with Lisa Croslin. I was advised that Lisa had left town on Saturday, September 12, 2009, and was not returning. I was advised she and Hank Sr. had moved to Tennessee. I asked if there was a telephone number where Croslin might be contacted. I was provided the following number, (615) 915-1852; I was advised this was the telephone number for Lisa Croslin's Mother.

On September 14, 2009, I presented my findings to the Honorable Judge T. LaRue. Judge LaRue concurred with my findings and issued an arrest warrant for Hank Thomas Croslin Jr. for grand theft.

In view of the above listed information, this investigation is deemed exceptionally cleared. Further reports will be rendered on a timely basis, if and when deemed warranted.
