

Daily Curriculum – January 17

Media Literacy Question of the Day:

What messages do you think an audience gets from media coverage of a presidential summit?

Weekly Newsquiz: The following questions relate to events that were covered this week on CNN Student News. Write your answers in the space provided.

1. Ariel Sharon was a former prime minister and military leader of what country?
2. What Major League Baseball player is appealing the longest suspension in his sport's history for alleged doping?
3. What's the term used to explain presidential appointments that are made when the Senate is not in session?
4. What unit of measurement is often used to describe the level of water or air pollution?
5. What country recently expelled American journalist David Satter?
6. In what country would you find the city of Bangkok, where thousands recently protested their nation's government?
7. Where was a U.S. Consulate attacked by terrorists on September 11, 2012?
8. What term refers to ISPs (internet service providers) not "discriminating" against different kinds of Internet content?
9. What tech company paid $3 billion for Nest, which makes home thermostats and smoke detectors?
10. In what New York river did a U.S. Airways passenger jet make a "miracle" landing five years ago?