

Weekly Newsquiz – October 17

1. Pakistani activist Malala Yousafzai and Indian activist Kailash Satyarthi were recently selected to share what prestigious award?

2. The island of Okinawa is part of what country, which was hit this week by Typhoon Vongfong?

3. Who is the leader of North Korea?

4. The duffel bag is named for a city in what nation?

5. What is the name of the NASA drone that began as a project by Perdue University students?

6. In which chamber of the U.S. Congress are about a third of its 100 seats up for election in this year's midterms?

7. In which chamber of the U.S. Congress are all 435 of its voting seats up for election in this year's midterms?

8. What branch of the U.S. military operates the mysterious X-37B space plane?

9. A proposal in drought-stricken Santa Monica, California would limit each resident's water usage to how many gallons per day?

10. The Saffir-Simpson scale measures the sustained wind speeds of what?