

Weekly Newsquiz – October 24, 2014

1. What European country most recently dropped out of the process to host the 2022 Winter Olympic Games?
2. In what African country, formerly known as Zaire, would you find the Ebola River?
3. What famous landmark in St. Louis, Missouri hasn't been cleaned since it was completed in 1965?
4. Doctors believe the maximum incubation period for the Ebola virus is how many days?
5. What African nation's government said it recently reached a deal with terrorists to free hundreds of kidnapped schoolgirls?
6. What comet, named for an observatory in Australia, hurtled past Mars this week?
7. Drivers at what age are the most likely to have a crash with injuries, according to a new study by the AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety?
8. Followers of what religion, the world's third-largest, celebrated the festival of Diwali this week?
9. What is the capital of Canada?
10. What U.S. university is grappling with a scandal allegedly involving thousands of students and academic fraud?