

Weekly Newsquiz – November 7

1. Over what California desert did Virgin Galactic's SpaceShipTwo break up during a test flight?
2. What place of worship, opened to the public in 1512, shows some of Michelangelo's most famous masterpieces?
3. In what year did Congress establish Election Day in the U.S.?
4. At least how many seats does a political party need in the U.S. Senate to have control of the chamber?
5. What piece of sports equipment recently set a Guinness World Record as the longest, measuring more than 20 feet in length?
6. The Executive Branch of the U.S. government is controlled by what political party?
7. In the U.S. midterm elections, what political party gained control of the Senate and expanded its control of the House?
8. In order to override a presidential veto, what fraction of both chambers of Congress must vote to do so?
9. What does a cytologist study?
10. In what war-torn nation did the U.S. launch a recent airstrike against the Khorasan terrorist group?