

Weekly Newsquiz – January 16

1. In country did millions of demonstrators recently join world and religious leaders in a unity march against terrorism?
2. Approximately what fraction of Iraq and Syria are believed to be controlled by the ISIS terrorist group?
3. Name the private company that had mixed results from a recent mission involving its Falcon 9 rocket and Dragon space capsule.
4. In what year did a catastrophic, 7.0-magnitude earthquake strike the island nation of Haiti?
5. Which of the two main types of energy is associated with motion?
6. A massive monument to what Native American warrior, who died in 1877, is being constructed in South Dakota?
7. A false alarm forced astronauts aboard the International Space Station to evacuate the American section Wednesday. To what country's section did they go?
8. How many vertebrae are in your neck?
9. What African country, which is struggling with terrorist attacks from Boko Haram, is led by President Goodluck Jonathan?
10. In what European nation would you find Verviers, where officials say a police raid prevented an attack by a suspected terrorist cell?