

Weekly Newsquiz – August 28

1. What kind of animal is associated with a stock market that's on the rise?

2. What is the name of the average of 30 significant U.S. stocks that give an indication of how the overall market is doing?

3. Name the capital of Lebanon, where recent protests over garbage turned into an uprising against the nation's government.

4. Between what two countries would you find the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ), which is actually one of the most militarized borders on Earth?

5. In what country do two treasure hunters say they've discovered a legendary train that contains tons of Nazi gold?

6. In what country would you find Palmyra, where the ISIS terrorist group recently destroyed some ancient architectural ruins?

7. In what U.S. state would you find the only American highway whose signs use kilometers instead of miles to indicate distance?

8. Who was the first U.S. treasury secretary, whose face currently appears on the $10 bill?

9. The world's tallest mountain (when measured from base to summit) is located in what U.S. state?

10. In response to a massive flow of migrants, what European country is building a temporary barrier along its southern border with Serbia?