

Weekly Newsquiz – September 18

1. In what nation would you find the city of Joso, which was one of the hardest-hit areas by flooding from Tropical Storm Etau?
2. What U.S. state traditionally holds the first contest to choose each major party's presidential nominee?
3. Gov. Jerry Brown declared a state of emergency in two California counties this week after they were devastated by what kind of fast-moving disaster?
4. How many Syrian refugees does the U.S. government plan to accept -- a number that the United Nations says isn't enough?
5. What Middle Eastern country has been torn apart by civil war since 2011?
6. The parliament of what nation, part of the British Commonwealth, recently chose its fourth leader in just over two years?
7. What kind of animal recently set a 2016 Guinness World Record by catching a ball 14 times in a minute?
8. What country has become the prime gateway into Western Europe during the region's most severe refugee crisis since World War II?
9. In total, how many amendments have been added to the U.S. Constitution?
10. This week, 15 Republican political candidates took part in a debate at the library of what former U.S. president?