

Weekly Newsquiz – December 11

1. From what part of the White House did President Obama recently make a prime-time address about the issue of terrorism?
2. What former U.S. president, who served from 1977-1981, recently announced that he was cancer-free, following his treatment for the disease?
3. The U.S. Justice Department is investigating the police force of what U.S. city, following days of demonstrations over a video that showed the shooting of a 17-year-old?
4. In U.S. law, a peremptory challenge may be used in the selection of what?
5. What bacteria, which can be found in the intestines of healthy animals, has been linked to Chipotle restaurants in nine states?
6. For the first time, authorities declared a red alert for hazardous pollution in what Asian city?
7. In what nation did an opposition party win a major victory in recent elections, strongly defeating the party of President Nicolas Maduro?
8. What is the only U.S. state to officially recognize a state spider?
9. Who was named as TIME Magazine's 2015 Person of the Year?
10. Name the 2002 law that was just replaced by the Every Student Succeeds Act.