Sanders	38%
O'Malley	2%

(No sampling error)

This CNN Poll of Polls is an average of the results of the five most recent nationwide polls among registered voters who are Democrats or Democratic-leaning independents, or among registered voters who say they will participate in the Democratic primary or caucus in their state. The Poll of Polls includes: The Fox News Poll conducted Jan. 4-7, the CBS News/New York Times Poll conducted Jan. 7-10, the NBC News/Wall Street Journal Poll conducted Jan. 9-13 and the Monmouth University Poll conducted Jan. 15-18. The poll of polls does not have a margin of sampling error.

The following CNN Poll of Polls averages results for the four most recent publicly released national polls that meet CNN's standards for publication. Three of these polls included the following candidates in their question on the race for the Republican nomination for president: Jeb Bush, Ben Carson, Chris Christie, Ted Cruz, Carly Fiorina, Jim Gilmore, Mike Huckabee, John Kasich, Rand Paul, Marco Rubio, Rick Santorum and Donald Trump. The NBC News/Wall Street Journal Poll did not include Jim Gilmore or Rick Santorum, so averages for those candidates are based on three polls rather than four.
