

Weekly Newsquiz – February 5

1. From what country does the U.S. import the most goods?
2. Scientists at the University of California, Los Angeles recently discussed their new theory that a planetary, head-on collision resulted in what object in the night sky?
3. The island of Lesbos, some of whose residents have been nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize, is part of what European country?
4. Name the annual U.S. sporting event that's seen by about a third of the country, despite a rise in concerns about the safety of the sport itself.
5. Name the Democratic candidate who received the most votes in Monday's Iowa caucuses.
6. Name the Republican candidate who received the most votes in Monday's Iowa caucuses.
7. What U.S. state holds the next contest in the U.S. presidential election process?
8. In the 1940s, the Zika virus was first identified in what African country?
9. China, the world's most populous country, witnesses the world's largest human migration surrounding what holiday?
10. How many nations are involved in the Trans-Pacific Partnership?