

Weekly Newsquiz – May 27

1. During a trip overseas, U.S. President Barack Obama announced the end of a ban on U.S. weapons sales to what communist country?
2. Egypt announced that it was sending a submarine to search for the remains of a missing passenger plane in what body of water?
3. Name one of the two months when most people attempt to climb Mount Everest because winds are calmer and there is less snowfall.
4. An outbreak of what disease, which can cause liver problems and jaundice, recently struck the nation of Angola?
5. In what year did the ISIS terrorist group take over the Iraqi city of Falluja, which Iraqi and coalition forces are now fighting to win back?
6. Name the revolutionary invention that was first used in 1974 and involved a laser and a pack of chewing gum.
7. Name the organization of several world economies whose leaders met this week in Japan.
8. What country is world's largest arms exporter, dealing in weapons ranging from assault rifles to fighter jets to armored tanks?
9. What is the name of the militant group that ruled Afghanistan before a U.S.-led invasion of the country ended its leadership?
10. Researchers at the University of Michigan have developed a "bendable" form of what material, which is commonly used to construct bridges in the U.S.?