METHODOLOGY

A total of 1,003 Arizona adults were interviewed by telephone statewide by live interviewers calling both landline and cellphones. Interviews were conducted in English and Spanish, depending upon the respondent's preference. All respondents were asked questions concerning basic demographics, and the entire sample was weighted to reflect statewide Census figures for gender, race, age, education and region of the state.

This sample includes 603 interviews among landline respondents and 400 interviews among cell phone respondents.

Respondents were asked questions about whether they are registered to vote, their likelihood of voting, past voting behavior, and interest in the campaign. Based on the answers to those questions, 809 respondents were classified as likely voters. Among those likely voters, 218 described themselves as Democrats, 312 described themselves as Independents, and 279 described themselves as Republicans

The Arizona regions are composed of the following counties: the "Maricopa" region is composed of Maricopa county; the "Pima" region is composed of Pima county; the "Rest of the State" region is composed of Apache, Cochise, Coconino, Gila, Graham, Greenlee, La Paz, Mohave, Navajo, Pinal, Santa Cruz, Yavapai and Yuma counties.

Crosstabs on the following pages only include results for subgroups with enough unweighted cases to produce a sampling error of +/- 8.5 percentage points or less. Some subgroups represent too small a share of the population of Arizona to produce crosstabs with an acceptable sampling error. Interviews were conducted among these subgroups but results for groups with a sampling error larger than +/-8.5 percentage points are not displayed.
